newark— anatomy of a riot

Everybody loses. The black community, the white community. Especially you. But riots keep happening. And we can't afford to take even bigger steps backward this summer and next, and the one after that. Today, an anatomy of a riot. Third in the timely and topical special series, "Time for Americans."

Linda's reel romance blossoms into real romance

BY HARVEY PACK

(Special to CHICAGO'S AMERICAN)

NEW YORK—When Linda Kaye Henning of CBS-TV's Petticoat Junction (Saturdays, 8:30 p. m. channel 2) marries her on-screen sweetheart Mike Minor this September, the marriage will join two of the ruling clans of the TV situation comedy field.

Paul Henning, executive-producer, packager and creator of such successful TV ventures as The Beverly Hillbillies, The Bob Cummings show, Burns and Allen, and Green Acres, did not set his daughter up for the part of one of the pretty teenagers on Petticoat Junction.

LINDA, as the boss's daughter, had to audition just like anybody else, and according to eyewitnesses, had to fit the part just a little bit better to get the nod. In fact, Mr. Henning wasn't actually notified until the producer of the show had selected Linda.

Because she's an exuberant, vivacious gal, Linda became the favorite of everybody on the Petticoat Junction crew, some of whom have been working for Paul since Linda was a baby. Whenever a casting call went out for young leading men to appear in episodes with the girls, many a Dutch Uncle kept his eye on Linda Kaye to see if any eager actors were trying to make time, hoping to be the star of a new Paul Henning series called, My Daughter and Her Guy.

WHEN Mike Minor appeared on the set a few seasons back to audition for the role of the fiancé of one of the girls, he was subjected to the customary once over.

THIS WAS the scene last November 4 on Petticoat Junction when wedding bells rang for Betty Jo [Linda Kaye] and Steve [Mike Minor] as their TV romance culminated in marriage. And they will ring again this fall, only this time it's the real thing. Linda and Mike's reel romance blossomed into a real romance, and they will be wed in September.

"He asked me out the first day," recalled Linda, "and even I figured it was just another 'producer's daughter bit.' I always accept those invitations to, because I like to watch them operate."

A FEW dates later it was obvious to everyone on the set . . . but Mike and Linda . . . that this was for real. Mike's role was switched to make him Linda's boy friend on the show and the off-screen romance flowered. It even turned out that if Mike wanted to woo a producer, he didn't have to leave his own house, because he's the son of Don Fedderson whose packaging credits include such gold mines as My Three Sons, Family Affair, and The Millionaire. It was a match made in residual heaven.

In spite of the fact that neither Mike nor Linda has to worry about where the next buck is coming from, she's wearing a modest engagement ring, and the house she and Mike are planning to buy is hardly ostentatious.

"We don't need much yet," she said, "there's only the two of us and all my pets."

The "pets," according to one report, include thirteen cats and one dog.

AT THE moment, there are no plans afoot for either Fedderson or Henning to build a series around the youngsters, and Linda scoffs at the suggestions.

"It'll never happen. I know the trouble I had even being cast in 'Petticoat,' and Mike had to come to us for a job. But we're not worried . . . there are plenty of other producers in town . . . aren't there?"

Pick 'Miss Illinois' on TV Saturday

THE MISS Illinois Pageant, the winner to compete in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City in September, will be televised live and in color Saturday by WGN-TV, Channel 9, beginning at 8 p.m.

The program originates in the West High school auditorium in Aurora.

Fifty-one lovely finalists, winners of local pageants throughout the state, will compete for the title and crown.

EMCEE of the show is Debbie Bryant, Miss America 1966. Frank and Donna Alslip, well-known choreographers, will instruct the contestants participating in the production numbers.

Kathryn Jean Myers, Miss Illinois 1967, will end her year's reign and pass the title and crown on to the newly chosen "queen."

FOR THE first time, the Miss Illinois song, specially composed for the pageant, will be introduced and become an integral part of the telecast which covers the history of Illinois in music and dance — from the hoedown, to the waltz, and the razzmatazz of the roaring twenties — including our present musical sounds.

The Miss Illinois Pageant, Inc., a non-profit, civic organization sponsors the state finals competition. There are 20 prominent business men on the board of directors, and at least 120 persons will be working thru the Illinois State Pageant headquarters during the final pageant week, working behind the scenes and giving freely of their time to insure the success of the Miss Illinois Pageant.

A TOTAL of $3,000 in scholarships will be distributed to the contestants. Miss Illinois wins $1,000; the first runner-up $750; the remainder is awarded to the next three runners-up.

Additional prizes for Miss Illinois include the free use of an auto for a year, and a $500 wardrobe allowance for her trip to Atlantic City.

THE MOST coveted prize for Miss Illinois is the opportunity to compete in the Miss America Pageant.

Miss America wins a $10,000 scholarship and during her year's reign usually earns over $75,000 making personal appearances throughout the country.
