NO DOUBT ABOUT IT:

Cosby is a star!

BY CHARLES WITBECK

(Special to CHICAGO'S AMERICAN)

HOLLYWOOD—The ex-Temple university football player who is even admired by the Harvards, Bill Cosby, returns to television after a reasonable layoff, in The Second Bill Cosby Special, airing Wednesday on NBC [8-9 p. m., channel 5].

NO DOUBT about it, Cosby is a star, looked up to by the kids who pin up big posters of him, by college "brains" and the mass audience, and he's pulled it all off with "light" monologs on kids, never referring to race, politics, religion.

Bill doesn't change anything in special number two, running with his good stuff, "the longest uninterrupted monolog," 22 minutes of "To Russell, My Brother Whom I Slept With," in addition to the surefire "Noah," where God tells the man to build an Ark, which he proceeds to do while the neighbors think he's nuts.

BILL unearthed a rich comic lode with Noah years ago, but refused to put his mark on further Biblical stories for fear of being categorized. Surely, it's time for another.

Taped last September, the special coincides with the first week of shooting for next fall's half-hour Sunday night comedy, The Bill Cosby Show, about a high school gym teacher who moonlights on the side as a private eye.

FOR A guy who once thought he'd like to go back to hometown Philadelphia and teach junior high school, Cosby appears to be putting his influence and prestige to work in useful ways helping blacks enter the entertainment world.

While accepting the Man of the Year Award recently from Harvard's Hasty Pudding club, Bill suggested changing the award's title to "The Nice Guy as far as We Know," or something less pretentious.

"If you're talking about humanitarians, there are some people who should be in front of me," he commented, and went on to admit he had "done his own kind of thing" for civil rights.

COSBY has been criticized by his brothers for keeping race problems out of his material, and for remaining silent during his swift rise to national prominence via television.

While the majority of black comics spend years learning their trade in the jungle of seedy clubs, "toilet training" as it's called, Cosby, in one soaring leap, by-passed the knockabout lessons, for TV guest spots and then on to I Spy where he acquired the fundamentals in working before cameras, and that's enough to cause envy in any entertainer.

BILL refused to talk about race matters until he became secure and established, altho he spent time with Studio Watts and high school kids. Nowadays Bill is much more vocal about race problems and more to the point, is using his power to open doors.

After a scarred struggle into the white spotlight, some negro performers have been known to withhold the helping hand, but no one says this about Cosby. His power is just beginning to be felt and the hand is out.

DEAR ANSWER MAN

I S Lori Saunders [Betty Jo on Petticoat Junction] featured on a weight control drink commercial? — Mary J., Chicago.

Altho Lori Saunders started her career in television commercials, and still does them, she is not featured drinking any diet drinks. However, currently she is flipping her curls on a well known hair-setting commercial.

I would like to know something about the boy who plays Earl J. Waggedorn on Julia. How old is he? Where was he born? Has he any brothers or sisters? I think he's darling! —K. P., Skokie.

You're talking about Michael Link, who was born in Provo, Utah, June 12, 1962. He has one sister, Randi, and has been acting since he was three.

Would you please give me some information on Bill Kurtis, Channel 2's announcer? I think he is really cute. Is he married? —C. K., Bellwood.

Bill Kurtis may be "cute" to you, but he is also quite brilliant. He holds a law degree, but decided to continue his career in broadcasting which he started while a law student. Kurtis was born in Florida and raised in Topeka, Kas. He received his B. S. degree in journalism from the U. of Kansas and his law degree from Washburn. He started on station WIBW in Topeka as the station's weatherman and became quite famous there in 1966 when during his program a bulletin was handed to him announcing that a tornado was cutting its way across the city. That weather report turned into a three-hour continuous broadcast, during which Kurtis plotted the course of the tornado, relayed calls for help and personal messages to and from those injured in the storm. He has been with WBMM-TV news since Sept., 1966, and lives with his wife and young daughter in Oak Park.

My husband and I have been fans of Lawrence Welk for many years. We are going to celebrate our 25th wedding anniversary and we never had a vacation. We will go to

BILL KURTIS

L. A. in September and would like to know to whom we write for tickets. It would be the nicest anniversary we would have, if we could see the show—Mrs. Sylvia B., Chicago.

A spokesman at ABC says you can obtain tickets for Mr. Welk's show by writing well in advance to ABC, 4151 Prospect avenue, Los Angeles, Cal. 90027. And happy anniversary!

Did John Wayne ever receive an Academy Award? About how many movies did he make? How did he get the name "Duke"?—W. L., Chicago.

Altho John Wayne has made over 500 movie, he has never received an Academy Award. His nickname was given him by his childhood friends who did not like his real name, Marion, and even after he changed his name professionally to John Wayne, the nickname stuck.

PUZZLE SOLUTION

Puzzle appears on Page 10.

I think Johnny Cash is a wonderful singer and can't understand why he doesn't do a TV special. Are there any planned for him?—Rosalie W., Chicago.

Your hero will star in his own one-hour variety show starting in May, as a summer replacement on the ABC network.

My niece and I have a bet on when "As the World Turns" first came on TV. I said spring of 1954, she says 1956. Can you give me the specific date and year?—Mrs. K. T., Chicago.

The show premiered April 2, 1956.

Did Montgomery Clift die of brain damage or a heart attack? Did he ever win an academy award and how old was he when he died?—L. M. Naperville.

Montgomery Clift, who was nominated three times for an Oscar but never won, was 45 years old when he died of a heart attack on July 23, 1966.

I have heard that two of the Beatles wrote Mary Hopkins' hit song, "Those Were the Days." Is this true? If so, which Beatle wrote it?—Hal C., Des Plaines.

There is a rumor that John Lennon and Paul McCartney wrote the tune, but it isn't true. Their only connection is the record was made on the Apple label and Apple Records is owned by the Beatles.

Any TV questions? Comments? Gripes? Write the TV Answer Man, Chicago's American, 445 N. Michigan av., Chicago, Ill. 60611.
