Something special

NASA knew what it was doing when it scheduled the televised flight of Apollo 15 for this week. The show from the moon has absolutely no competition. This could be the least entertaining week in the history of television. The scraps:

Sunday, 9 p. m. (11)-Fanfare: The Midnight Special.

Music and the choo-choo train, with Leon Bibb, Mike

Seeger and Bill Monroe and the Blue Grass Boys,

Sunday, 10:30 p. m. (9)-David Susskind Show: Angry Taxpayers and Militant Welfare Mothers. A belligerent show.

Monday, 8 p. m. (11)-Black Journal,

Repeat of the famous interview with Sammy Davis Jr.

Tuesday, 8:30 p. m. (11)-Artists in America: Jules Feiffer.

TV movies By Mary Knoblauch

Besides all the John Wayne movies this week, it is a week noted for unreasonable cuts in movies. Check first to make sure you're seeing a complete movie.

Sunday, 8 p. m. (7)-"The Film-Flam Man."

George C. Scott in one of his more unusual roles.

Monday, 8:30 a. m. (7)—"The Window."

First class suspense film which won Bobby Driscoll a special Oscar.

Tuesday, 8:30 a.m. (7)—"Top Hat."

Even with a few cuts, it's still a top flight musical.

Tuesday, 8 p. m. (5)—"A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum."

Richard Lester's zany film from the stage musical.

Wednesday, 10:30 p. m. (9)—"Sands of Iwo Jima."

To reassure those disbelievers who think John Wayne never dies in the movies. Thursday and Friday, 3:30 p. m. (7)—"For Whom the Bell Tolls."

The Hemingway-based movie that doubled the sales of sleeping bags.

Thursday, 6:30 p. m. (9)—"The Angel and the Badman."

Yet another John Wayne goodie.

Thursday, 10:30 p. m. (32)—"The Fugitive Kind."

The movie is a bit lacking, but the performances certainly aren't.

Thursday, 1:05 a.m. (9)—"Violent Saturday."
Fine Richard Fleischer actioner.

Saturday, 7 p. m. (9)—"The Glass Menagerie."

Touching film from Tennessee Williams' best play.

ZERO MOSTEL, as Pseudolus, a conniving store in ancient Rome, seems oblivious to the attention being showered on him by three beautiful girls in this scene from "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" on NBC's T

Saturday, 7:30 p. m. (5) — "The President's Analyst."

Theodore J. Flicker rides again.

Saturday, 12:40 a. m. (7)—"Crossfire."

Exciting suspense film with a try at a message.

Camp Movie of the Week: "Doomsday Flight."

One would think that after this film had inspired a successful blackmail caper against a real airline thru a TV showing that it would be withdrawn for a while. No such luck. [Saturday, 10:30 p. m., channel 7]

For children

Sunday, 9:30 a.m. (9)—Untamed World: "Animals That Work for Man."

Some are familiar, some unique and some bizarre. But they all serve! Sunday, 10:30 a. m. (7)—Discovery: "The Pendleton Roundup."

Cowbodys and Indians and bucking brones in Pendieten. Ore.

Sunday, 6:30 p. m. (2)-Animal World.

A penetrating look at the frozen wasteland above the Arctic Circle, one of the least understood areas or earth. Sunday, 6:30 p. m. (5)—World of Disney: "Hang Your Hat on the Wind."

Heartwarming tale of a Navajo boy who finds a lost thorobred horse and is determined to keep the prized animal as his pet.

Tuesday, 3:30 p. m. (2)—Early Show: "The Three Worlds of Gulliver."

Fine film for the youngsters as Gulliver encounters the wee people of Lilliput.

Thursday, 3:30 p. m. (2)—Early Show: "The Seventh Youage of Sinbad."

Another goodie for the kids as Sinbad rescues a princess from an evil magician.
