shows of the week

Here we are in the midst of the summer reruns and this week television will be offering both something old (which is predictable) and something new (not always so predictable).

SATURDAY: "You're in Love, Charlie Brown." 7 p.m. Channel 2 (CBS). Poor ol' Charlie is in love again with that little red-headed girl in this rerun of a delightful half-hour cartoon.

MONDAY: "The Monty Hall Smokin' Stokin' Fire Brigade." 7 p.m. Channel 7 (ABC). Monty Hall, who has been leader of the revels on Let's Make a Deal for nine raucous years, gets a chance to be host of a variety special. Monty promises (as you can see if you turn to your Panorama magazine in the Saturday Chicago Daily News) that this one-hour program will roam California searching for folk festivals. Featured

On the cover:

Jane, a native Chicagoan, is the hostess at 8:30 a.m. of WLS-TV's weekday movies. She has had various movie, television and radio roles in her acting career.

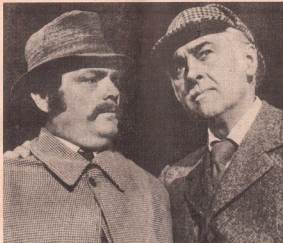

Melba Moore and Clifton Davis will co-star in a musical-comedy series starting Wednesday on Channel 2 at 7 p.m.

performers are Cass Elliot, the Mike Curb Congregation and Fred Smoot.

TUESDAY: "The Hound of the Baskervilles." 7:30 p.m. Channel 7 (ABC). Sorry, old bean, but I'm mad for Sherlock Holmes, to the point of enjoying reruns of mediocre versions of Holmes' most exciting adventure. The stars here are Bernard Fox as Dr. Watson, and Stewart Granger-as Holmes himself.

WEDNESDAY: The Melba Moore-

Stewart Granger (right) as the master detective Sherlock Holmes, and his associate, Dr. Watson (Bernard Fox), track down a criminal in "The Hound of the Baskervilles" Tuesday on Channel 7 at 7:30 p.m.

Clifton Davis Show. 7 p.m. Channel (CBS). This is the "new" in the week's schedule. CBS is experimenting with short-lived summer replacements and this one features that delightful star of musical comedy, Miss Moore, and Davis, who is currently appearing on Broadway in the musical "Two Gentlemen of Verona."

THURSDAY: The Dick Cavett Show. 10:30 p.m. Channel 7 (ABC). Everyone who wants to save Cavett's Show from extinction ought to watch tonight when Cavett devotes the whole 90 minutes to director Alfred Hitchcock, the famous bird lover.

TWO-TIME Emmy Award winner Jean Stapleton, alias All in the Family's Edith Bunker, learns to dance rock and roll on the Melba Moore-Clifton Davis summer comedy series opener Wednesday. The "Aaaaaw Archieee!" lady looks 10 years younger in person anyway. "We do a reverse makeup job on Edith," she confides. "I wipe off all my own makeup and put my hair up in tight pin curls. Then the hairdresser frizzes it out."

● KAYE BALLARD at the San Francisco Playboy Club: "Mama is always pestering me. 'When are you going to get married? You're 27 — and in another year you'll be 46.'"

... Jean Rivers in Las Vegas: "On our wedding night, Edgar took one look at me and phoned Ralph Nader." ... Debbie Reynolds in Hollywood: "A man called me. He said, 'This is an obscene phone call. Any requests?'"

● GLENDA JACKSON spent two weeks sloshing through a muddy field doing a "very physical" scene in her new movie, "Triple Echo." But, she told a London reporter, "not naked — I keep my clothes on all the time. There's no nude wrestling in the mud. Sorry, dear." The movie reteams her with Oliver Reed, her "Women in Love" co-star.

● JULIE PARRISH doesn't say she's a real, live witch exactly, but she does claim certain psychic powers. She even became apprenticed to an astrologer and taught classes. But she stopped after she predicted her own death. "I learned the exact day.

I wrote my will. A lot of people were praying for me." That day she fell in the street and almost was run over. "Now I've had enough of it. I'm not so sure now it's important to know your future." Julie, Betty Harrington on Peyton Place, added, "Sometimes it's worse if you do know."

● SHELLEY FABARES, niece of singer Nanette Fabray, said her last name pronounced exactly the same way. Not Fabairees or Fabareass. Not that you should care, but you may be seeing her as co-star with Brian Keith in their new fall situation comedy, The Little People. Keith you pronounce Keith.

● ALAN KING is a man of action. "I have to have a lot of action goin'," said the frenetic comic. "If I don't I create it. Then I complain I'm overworked." King doesn't get much help from the Ms. "Everytime I'm mad, I start hollering at my wife. And all she says is 'Why holler?'"

● ON HIS ANNUAL auto tour of the country, Flip Wilson stopped at a little restaurant with a sign out front reading "Mom's Home Cooking." Mom herself waited on him. "What's the specialty," asked Flip. "Left-overs," answered Mom.

● BUDDY EBSEN, best known as Jed in the Beverly Hillbillies, is an expert sailor. He talks about the sport, his new sailing book "Polynesian Concept," and prepares a mess of slungullion on the Dinah Shore show Tuesday. And he sings some old sailor songs, too.
