Saturday

Junjo [C]-Noon to 2:30 p.m. (9)
Big, dumb circus flick about the rivalry between two circuses and the romance between the children of the two owners. Doris Day, Stephen Boyd, Jimmy Durante, Martha Raye. For the little peanuts in the house. ★★ (43)

Come Out Fighting-Noon to 1:30 p.m. (35)
The boys at the station get mixed up with gamblers while teaching the police commissioner's son to box. Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall. ★½ (45)

Riot in Cell Block 2-1 to 2:30 p.m. (5)
Exciting prison drama with Neville Brand playing a con man who instigates a prison riot and plans an escape. ★★½ (54)

The Fly-1:30 to 3 p.m. (32)
Sci-fi story about a man whose head and arms take on the appearance of a fly's and a fly's head turns into that of a man's. Stay away from the swatter. ★★★ (58)

Sandy the Seal [C]-2 to 3:30 p.m. (2)
A lighthouse keeper and his family adopt and raise an orphaned seal pup. Marianne Koch, Heinz Drache. No rating available (45)

Gilbert and Sullivan-2 to 4 p.m. (1)
Biography of the great opera team's career together, with "A Wand'ring Minstrel, I" and "Three Little Maids." Robert Morley and Maurice Evans. ★★½ (33)

Lost in Alaska-2:30 to 4 p.m. (9)
The Klondike inherits the clowning duo in this fast-paced comedy about gold, gambling and gals. Plenty of funny sight gags make this a notch or two above average A & C fare. With Bud Abbott,

Movie index

Lou Costello and Tom Ewell. ★★ (52)

The Showmen Angel-3 to 4:30 p.m. (3)
A Broadway showgirl (Margaret Sullivan) marries a soldier (James Stewart) knowing her past will interfere, but he is killed in World War I. Wings it. ★★ (38)

Piranha, Piranha [C]-7 to 9 p.m. (32)
A trio sets out to photograph the jungle wildlife of the Amazon River area and encounter a cold-blooded hunter who devises a game which will turn the hunters into the hunted. No rating available (72)

The Ghost of Flight 401 [C]-8 to 10 p.m. (5)
Made-for-TV drama about a recurring supernatural presence who haunts an airliner. The ghostly figure keeps warning the increasingly frightened crew of possible engine failures and other malfunctions. Made for TV (78)

They Shoot Horses Don't They? [C]-10:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. (3)
Sydney Pollack directed this masterful recreation of the marathon dance era—the Depression—when people held each other up as they moved around a ballroom floor, sleepless for weeks at a time, to win cash prizes. Pollack concentrates on the bitterness, physical weariness and spiritual desperation of his characters, including hard, unbreakable Jane Fonda, and Red Buttons, a sailor who's a veteran of other marathons and cheerfully teaches everybody the ropes. The ending, even though telegraphed in the title, is stunningly effective precisely because it is so inevitable. With Michael Sarrazin, Susannah York, Gig Young. Brilliant American film. ★★★★★ (79)

The African Queen [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:39 a.m. (2)
Classic comedy-adventure about a gin-soaked steamboat captain (Humphrey Bogart) and a prissy missionary (Katharine Hepburn) who chug down the Congo River during WW I, fighting the Germans, the elements and each other. With Robert Morley, Theodore Bikel. All aboard. ★★★★★ (51)

Fistful of Dollars [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:25 a.m. (9)
Grimo rides into San Miguel and virtually depopulates the place before he rides out again in the made-in-Spain, English-dubbed, Sergio Leone shoot-'em up flick. Clint Eastwood, Marianne Koch, John Wells. Buckets of blood. ★★ (57)

God's Little Acre [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. (48)
Diluted version of Erskine Caldwell's earthy novel about a Georgia dirt farmer obsessed with the idea that there's gold on his land. Robert Ryan, Aldo Ray, Tina Louise, Buddy Hackett. Can you dig it? ★★ (58)

Citizen Kane-11:30 to 3:03 a.m. (7)
Often voted by critics as the best film ever made, this is Orson Welles' brilliant, thinly-disguised recreation of the life of newspaper tycoon William Randolph Hearst. Welles directed the film and starred as Charles Foster Kane, portraying his life from the eager, idealistic 25-year-old who buys his first paper, to the enfeebled 75-year-old man who surveys the decay of his once-formidable empire. With Joseph Cotten, Agnes Moorehead. ★★★★★ (41)

The Scorpio Letters [C]-12:35 to 2:55 a.m. (9)
Dull, obscure, and listless espionage "thriller" about two agents

nired by the British to uncover a blackmailing ring. Alex Cord, Shirley Eaton. Zero (47)

The Sun Also Rises [C]-1:10 to 3:40 a.m., (3) Ernest Hemingway's novel, about the post-WW I drifters and dreamers known as the "lost generation," loses a lot in translation to the screen. Unless you watch very closely, you may never understand why Jake Barnes (Tyronne Power) and Lady Brett Ashley (Ava Gardner) can never be anything more than good friends. ("Sorry old man, you're impotent," stammers Henry Daniell as an Army physician in the first reel.) With Errol Flynn, Eddie Albert. More than partly cloudy. ★★ (57)

A Nice Little Bank that Should Be Robbed-3:30 to 5 a.m., (2) Two amateur crooks rob a bank and buy a race horse with the loot. Running short of cash, they decide to rob another bank, but this time, they are joined by their ex-bookie cab driver, Mickey Rooney, Tom Ewell, Dina Merrill. ★½ (58)

Sunday

Voice of Terror-10:30 to 1:30 p.m., (3) Sherlock Holmes is summoned by the Intelligence Inner Council when super saboteurs threaten the nation via radio. Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce, Evelyn Ankers and Thomas Gomez. AM-azing. ★★ (42)

Bright Victory-Noon to 2:30 p.m., (3) Moving story of the slow rehabilitation of a WW II soldier who was blinded in battle. Arthur Kennedy gives one of his best performances as the GI and Peggy Dow is warm and wonderful as the woman who gives him the understanding and courage he needs to go on. With Julie Adams. Quite an eye-ful. ★★ (52)

Mummy's Revenge-1 to 3 p.m., (3) Amenhotep's (an Egyptian pharaoh) mummy is brought back to life and he tries to find a woman who can be used to carry the spirit of his mistress. Paul Naschy and Jack Taylor. Why can't they leave sleeping mummies alone? ★ (73)

Edison, the Man-1:30 to 3:30 p.m., (3) Electric performance by Spencer Tracy rescues typical Hollywood bio of scientist who pursues his dream through skepticism and setback. With Charles Coburn, Rial Johnson. Light up the tube. ★★½ (40)

Mission Stardust [C]-2:30 to 4 p.m., (3) Earth spacecraft is forced to land on the Moon by robots who are searching for a cure for a disease affecting their race. Eissy Persson,

Land Jeffries. Leave it alone. ★ (63)

Saskatchewan [C]-3:30 to 5:30 p.m., (3) Canadian mountie Alan Ladd needs all the help he can get to drive Sioux Indians back across the border. With Shelley Winters, J. Carroll Nash. Is that any way to treat American tourists? ★★ (54)

Somewhere I'll Find You-7 to 9 p.m., (3) Two brothers (Clark Gable and Robert Sterling) who are war correspondents compete for scoops and Lana Turner. Why aren't there ever enough girls to go around? ★★ (42)

Son of Paleface [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:25 a.m., (3) Bob Hope is hilarious as a dude who goes West to claim his inheritance. Jane Russell plays a pistol-packing mama, and Roy Rogers triggers a few laughs too. ★★½ (52)

Battle of El Alamein [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., (3) Story of the fight between Rommel and the Allied forces in the desert of north Africa. Frederick Stafford and George Hilton. No rating available (71)

Spectre [C]-10:45 p.m. to 12:45 a.m., (3) Gene (Star Trek) Roddenberry produced this little slicker that could use another shine. Roddenberry creates a modern Sherlock

Holmes (Robert Culp) and his young medical associate (Gig Young) who meet murder at every turn as they plunge into power plays of a financier. ★½ (77)

Murder in Movieland [C]-11 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., (3) Story of a detective who delves into the sexual jungle of Hollywood to defend the husband of a fading film star. James Stewart, Strother Martin and Sherree North. No rating available (73)

Days of Wine and Roses [C]-11 p.m. to 1:35 a.m., (3) Starling, shattering story of a likeable young couple (Jack Lemmon and Lee Remick) whose marriage founders on the rocks of alcoholism. With Charles Bickford, Clark Gableman. 100 proof. ★★½ (62)

Mister Roberts [C]-12:30 to 3 a.m., (2) Grand adaptation of the Broadway comedy about the misadventures of a World War II Navy cargo ship, a second officer (Henry Fonda) who longs for combat and maniacal captain (James Cagney) who gives everyone a fight. Jack Lemmon won a supporting-actor Oscar as the rambunctious Ensign Pulver, and William Powell is a model of comic timing as the ship's doctor. Masterful comedy. ★★½ (55)

Brother Orchid-1:25 to 3:18 a.m., (7) Rare comedy outing for Humphrey Bogart and Edward G. Robinson, about a gangster who takes refuge in a monastery. With Ann Sothern, Ralph Bellamy. Plant yourself in front of the TV set. ★★ (40)

Big Hangover-3:30 to 5:10 a.m., (3) Alleged comedy about a young lawyer with a peculiar drinking problem (he's allergic to booze) and a rich psychiatrist student (Elizabeth Taylor) who's interested in his case. ★½ (50)

Mississippi Gambler [C]-9 to 11 a.m., (3) Tyronne Power plays a handsome riverboat gambler who decides to build an honest gaming house in New Orleans. With Piper Laurie, Julie Adams. A handful of clichés. ★★ (53)

Francis Joins the Wacs-1 to 2:30 p.m., (3) There were seven "Francis" movies about a talking mule and his sidekick Donald O'Connor. When a mistake sends Don back in the service—as a Wac—Francis clip-clops along with him. With Julie Adams. ★★ (54)

Lady Possessed-1 to 2:30 p.m., (3) Dreary fiasco written by Pamela Mason for her then-husband James. He's all about a woman (June Havoc) who thinks she's the reincarnation of a dead artist and tries to team up with the artist's husband, a vaudeville singer—played by Mason as if he's contemplating divorce. Excuse your channel switch. ★ (52)

Passionate Friends-1:30 to 3 p.m., (1) Old lovers meet again, the spark is rekindled and it's triangle time. Good cast—Trevor Howard, Ann Todd, Claude Rains—directed by David Lean. But the dramatic flame is feeble. ★½ (49)

Rich Man, Poor Man: Book 1 [C]-3:30 to 5 p.m., (2) Part I. Peter Strauss, Nick Nolte, Ed Asner and Susan Blakely star in the original 12-hour adaptation of Irwin Shaw's best-selling novel about the personal fortunes and misfortunes of two brothers who follow different routes and are pushed and pulled by ambition, greed, rebellion, love and lust as they confront unusual characters. The story also involves one brother's girl friend and Foxfire [C]-7 to 9 p.m., (3) Socialite Jane Russell (no, that's not a misprint) marries an Apache-mining engineer (Jeff Chandler), whose career almost wrecks their marriage. Jeff, dahling, your helmet with the little light on it is adorable—but NOT with black tie. ★½ ('55)

Wild and the Woolly [C]-8 to 10 p.m., (2) Feminist Western about four women who break out of Yuma Prison, career through a series of adventures and become involved with saving President Teddy Roosevelt from assassination. Chris De Lisle, Susan Bigelow, Elyssa Davalos and Doug McClure. Made for TV (78)

Down Patrol-8 to 10 p.m., (1) Errol Flynn commands a wing of the RAF during World War I and is continually faced with sending up green recruits to their deaths just to gain the objective. David Niven plays his pilot buddy, with Donald Crisp, Melville Cooper, Barry Fitzgerald. They really move their tails for you. ★★★ ('38)

Attack on Terror: The FBI Versus the Ku Klux Klan [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., (2) Part 1. Wayne Rogers, Dabney Coleman, Ed Flanders and Andrew Duggan star in a two-part presentation dramatizing the story of the three civil rights workers murdered in the Mississippi woods. The movie romanticizes the real performance of the FBI in the Deep South during the '50s and '60s, but it still may be worth a few hours of your time. Part 2 is shown Tuesday at 10:30 p.m. ★★★ ('75)

Norliss Tapes [C]-10:30 p.m. to Party-six

Midnight, (3) When a writer who has been investigating the supernatural vanishes, leaving behind tapes of his activities, a sheriff is led into an investigation of murder, demonic rites, exorcism and a strange Egyptian ring. Roy Thinnes, Claude Akins, Angie Dickinson. Reel neat. ★★★ ('73)

Experiment Perilous-11:37 p.m. to 1:32 a.m., (7) Mystery nifty about death sudden and doctor suspicious. With Lamarr, Hedy, Brent, George, Lukas, Paul. ★★★ ('44)

Island in the Sun [C]-1:15 to 3:45 a.m., (2) Watered-down screen translation of Alec Waugh's best-seller revolves around a group of blacks and whites living in the British West Indies and their personal and political lives. James Mason, Joan Fontaine, Harry Belafonte and Dorothy Dandridge. Partly cloudy. ★★ ('57)

Two of a Kind-3:45 to 5:20 a.m., (3) Uninspired suspense about a couple of con artists who plot to rob an elderly couple by having someone impersonate their long-lost son and gain the inheritance. Edmond O'Brien, Elizabeth Scott, Terry Moore. ★½

Tuesday

Frenchman's Creek [C]-9 to 11 a.m., (3) Bored with her London life and hubby, Lady DeMille (Joan Fontaine) takes her young children to an estate on the coast where she meets and falls for a French private and must choose between her love for him and her duty to her children. With Arturo Cordova and Basil Rathbone. Decisions, decisions. ★★★ ('64)

Trouble in the Glen-1 to 2:30 p.m., (4) Closing of a road sets tempers blazing in the rolling Scottish hills. Orson Welles.

Forrest Tucker, Victor McLaglen. Take a detour. ★½ ('54)

Luck of Ginger Coffey-1:30 to 3 p.m., (1) Irish immigrant in Montreal has job and marital trouble until he faces up to his irresponsibility and impracticality. Robert Shaw, Mary Ure. Good to the last drop. ★★★ ('64)

Rich Man, Poor Man: Book 1 [C]-3:30 to 5 p.m., (7) Part 2. Peter Strauss, Nick Nolte, Susan Blakely and others star in the original 12-hour adaptation of Irwin Shaw's best-selling novel about the personal fortunes and misfortunes of two brothers who are pushed and pulled through life by greed and ambition. Parts 3 through 5 will be shown at the same time Wednesday through Friday. Made for TV (78)

Marco the Magnificent [C]-7 to 9 p.m., (2) Top-notch cast—Anthony Quinn, Horst Buchholz, Omar Sharif and Orson Welles—depicts a top-notch flop in the tale of young Marco Polo's voyage from Italy to China. Bad dubbing, comic-strip-like characters and a poor script keep even these good actors from making an impact. ★ ('65)

A Question of Guilt [C]-8 to 10 p.m., (2) Tuesday Weld and Ron Leibman star in the story about a criminal case that examines the issues of morality and justice. Made for TV (78)

Arrow Head [C]-8 to 10 p.m., (1) Cavalryman (Charlton Heston) and Apache leader (Jack Palance) become blood brothers but wind up fighting hand to hand when war breaks out. Oh, brother. ★½ ('53)

Attack on Terror: The FBI Versus the Ku Klux Klan [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., (2) Part 2. Wayne Rogers, Dabney Coleman, Ed Flanders and Andrew Duggan star in the continuation of the two-part presentation dramatizing the story of the three civil rights workers murdered in the Mississippi woods. Even though, the movie romanticizes the real performance of the FBI in the Deep South during the '50s and '60s, still may be worth a few hours of your time. ★★★ ('75)

Crescendo [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:15 a.m., (2) Southern France is the scene of terror for a student when he visits the widow of a composer and finds himself thrown in the middle of a vicious game. Stephanie Powers and James Olson. No rating available ('72)

Tin Star-10:30 p.m. to 12:20 a.m., (3) Willy bounty hunter Henry Fonda plays a young sheriff (Tony Perkins) handle the town bully. Gold-star Western. ★★★ ('57)

Tillie and Gus-10:30 p.m. to 11:40 p.m., (1) A couple of gamblers pose as missionaries to share in their niece's inheritance. W.C. Fields, Baby LeRoy and Alison Skipworth. No rating available ('33)

W. C. Fields as the Golf Specialist-11:40 p.m. to Midnight, (1) W.C. Fields shows us that golf can be a violent game as he constantly gets fed off at his caddy. No rating available ('30)

The Fugitive-12:15 to 2:23 a.m., (7) Brooding drama about a Mexican priest who refuses to support the anticlerical government. Henry Fonda, Delores Del Rio, Pedro Armendariz, J. Carroll Nash; directed by John Ford. Don't hide from it. ★★★ ('47)

Shock Treatment-12:45 to 2:45 a.m., (2) A man has himself committed to an insane asylum to investigate a patient believed to have stolen $1 million. Naturally, one of the shrinkers wants the look, too. Stuart Whitman, Carol Lynley, Lauren Bacall. Lobotomy. ★½ ('44)

Bells are Ringing [C]-12:50 to 3:20 a.m., (9) Judy Holliday repeats her stage success in a musical tailored especially for her. She plays a love-struck operator at a phone-answering service, who falls for the voice of a client (Dean Martin). Other ding-a-lings on the party line include Fred Clark, Eddie Foy Jr. and Jean Stapleton as Udy's boss. Say hello. ★★★ ('60)

Master of Ballentore [C]-2:45 to 4:40 a.m., (2) When Bonnie Prince Charlie falls in his bid for the British throne, a Scottish rebel fires the country and turns pirate. Errol Flynn, Yvonne Furneaux, Aging Flynn in fine fettle. ★★½ ('53)

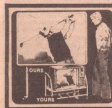

Wednesday

Green Helmet-9 to 11 a.m., (9) Top racing-driver, falls in love with a girl who fears for his life each time he races. When his co-driver is killed, he goes on to win the auto race but later gives up the sport for his girl; starring Bill Travers and Nancy Walters. ★½ ('61)

Romeo and Juliet [C]-1 to 2:30 p.m., (3) Guess which version of Shakespeare's tragic story of romance and tender love this one is: A, the 1954 version with Laurence Harvey and Susan Shentell; B, the 1936 version with John Barrymore and Leslie Howard; C, the 1966 version with Rudolph Nureyev; D, Franco Zeffirelli's 1968 version, or E, none of the above. If you guessed "E," you win and so does Channel 44 for digging up a version of this classic so unknown that we can't even find a rating for it in any of our books! Rosemarie Dexter and Gerónimo Meynier. No rating available ('67)

Banana Peel-1:30 to 3 p.m., (1) Generally entertaining comedy about a pair of scoundrels who cheat a millionaire out of large bankroll on the French Riviera. Jeanne Moreau and Jean-Paul Belmondo. ★★½

[C]-3:30 to 5 p.m., (7) Part 3. Peter Strauss, Nick Nolte, Ed Asner and Susan Blakely star in the original 12-hour adaptation of Irwin Shaw's best-selling novel about the personal fortunes and misfortunes of two brothers who follow different routes and are pushed and pulled by ambition, greed, rebellion, love and lust as they confront unusual characters. The story also involves one brother's girl friend and eventual wife. Parts 4 and 5 will be shown at the same time Thursday and Friday. Made for TV (78)

Special Olympics [C]-7 to 9 p.m., (2) Charles Durning and Irene Tedrow star in a drama revolving around a widower who struggles to hold his family together, despite the fact that one of his children is retarded. The retarded son, who adores his older, athletic brother, is enrolled in a special school and becomes involved in their olympics program, which leads him for the first time to find self-fulfillment because of his love of sports. With Herb Edelman, Debra Winger and Constance McCashin. Made for TV (78)

Mayor of Hell-7 to 9 p.m., (73) Channel 32 picks up another in its many "Press Release Awards" for this beaut: "Ward-heeler falls in love with a pretty reformer and helps her; well-performed fantasy." James Cagney, Madge Evans. No rating available (73)

Country Girl-8 to 10 p.m., (9) Somewhat soggy drama about a sodden singer (Bing Crosby) who has a chance at a comeback. Grace Kelly won an Oscar for her portrayal of his long-suffering but not entirely blameless wife. But it's Crosby's surprising performance that's the film's major strength. With William Holden, Anthony Ross. Bing's thing. ★★★ (54)

Emperor of the North [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:50 a.m., (9) Lee Marvin and Ernest Borgnine star in this sadistic, violent film that's set in Oregon and centers around a brutal conductor who threatens to kill any freeloader who wants to hop his freight. With Keith Carradine. ★ (73)

Paisito to Pimlico-10:30 to 11:45 p.m., (11) Inhabitants of a small section of London decide to secede from England. Stanley Holloway, Margaret Rutherford, Hermione Baddeley, Fun City. ★★★ (49)

A Girl, a Guy and a Gob-1 to 2:55 a.m., (7) Cute enough Lucille Ball comedy about a secretary engaged to a happy-go-lucky sailor, but in love with her dignified boss. With Edmond O'Brien, George Murphy, George Cleveland. Giggles but no guffaws. ★★ (41)

Detour to Nowhere [C]-1:05 to 3:10 a.m., (2) Two competing investigators try to locate an armored truck that seemingly vanished into thin air with $1.6 million in gold. George Peppard, Christine Ebersole. Original Banacek pilot film. ★★ (72)

Blossoms in the Dust [C]-1:20 to 3:20 a.m., (9) Story of a dedicated woman who founded a home for orphaned children in Texas after losing her own child. Greer Garson, Walter Pidgeon and Felix Bressart. Bring a hankie. ★★½ (74)

Island of the Lost-3:10 to 5:05 a.m., (2) Anthropologist and his family self sail in search of an uncharted island. Richard Greene, Luke Halpin. Family flick set adrift at an hour when boozers and gulls are in their banks. ★★ (67)

Thursday

Rhapsody [C]-9 to 11 a.m., (3)

Music-lover Elizabeth Taylor can't decide between violinist Vittorio Gassman or pianist John Ericson. It would probably take her much less time if she didn't spend all her time changing clothes! ★★★½ (54)

Hell the Conquering Hero [C]-1 to 2:30 p.m., (25) Hilarious satire of wartime hero worship, directed by Preston Sturges, about a hay fever victim discharged from the service, who concocts grandiose tales of his heroics for his patriotic small-town folks and friends. Eddie Bracken, Ella Raines, William Demarest. It'll win your heart and laughter. ★★★½ (41)

Shoot the Piano Player-1:30 to 3 p.m., (1) Charles Aznavour plays a timid tickler of the ivories in a Paris bar with a Buster Keaton deadpan that's often moving. But director Francois Truffaut can't seem to decide whether he's making a satire, a farce or a soap opera. ★★½ (42)

Rich Man, Poor Man: Book 1 [C]-3:30 to 5 p.m., (2) Part 4. Peter Strauss, Nick Nolte, Ed Asner and Susan Blakely star in the original 12-hour adaptation of Irwin Shaw's best-selling novel about the personal fortunes and misfortunes of two brothers who follow different routes and are pushed and pulled by ambition, greed, rebellion, love and lust as they confront unusual characters. The story also involves one brother's girl friend and eventual wife. Part 5 will be shown at the same time Friday. Made for TV (78)

Harlow [C]-7 to 9 p.m., (2) Of the two lousy 1965 "Harlow" flicks, this is the lesser effort. A cheap, lusterless, dull biography of actress Jean Harlow—starring Carol Lynley—it's more fiction than fact, dwelling on the actress' domination by a parasitical mother and stepfather, her marriage to an impotent producer and her episodes with male prostitutes. The only good performance is by Ginger Rogers as the star's gluttonous, self-centered mother. With Barry Sullivan, Efrem Zimbalist Jr. ★½ (65)

Saboteur-8 to 10 p.m., (9) Gimmicky but exciting Hitchcock thriller about a man accused of sabotage and murder, who sets out to find the real Nazi saboteurs. Robert Cummings, Otto Kruger, Priscilla Lane. Taut climax takes place in the Statue of Liberty. ★★★ (42)

Super Cops [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., (3) This is the saga to two real-life New York cops—played by Ron Leibman and David Selby—who earn the names Batman and Robin because of their unusual methods of dealing with criminals. Odd thing about these two is they actually worked in traffic division, but they waged their war on drug traffic in their off hours. A poor man's version of "Serpico." ★★ (74)

Desperate Hours-10:30 p.m. to 12:45 a.m., (8) Gripping nail-biter, directed by William Wyler, about three convicts who hold up a respected family (in their home) and use them as hostages. Humphrey Bogart is perfect in his last gangster role, with Fredric March, Arthur Kennedy, Martha Scott, Gig Young. Clash with flash. ★★★ (35)

The Invaders-10:30 p.m. to 12:15 a.m., (11) Gripping war drama (also known as "The 49th Parallel") about the survivors of a U-boat trapped and sunk by RCAF bombers in the Gulf of St. Lawrence. Laurence Olivier, Raymond Massey and Leslie Howard. Gripping. ★★★ (42)

Friends and Lovers-12:45 to 2:11 a.m., (7) Laurence Olivier, Adolphe Menjou and Lil Damita star in the drama of a woman loved by two men in the British Indian service who finds their friendship greater than their love for her. No rating available (73)

All Hands on Deck [C]-1:15 to 3:30 a.m., (2) Nautical nonsense in which Barbara Eden and a turkey show away on a Navy battleship. With Pat Boone, Gale Gordon, Dennis O'Keefe. Stuff it. ★½ (61)

Weird Woman-1:15 to 2:30 a.m., (9) Lukewarm drama about a man (Lon Chaney) who comes home with a bride reared in the South Seas and a gets in a little hot water with his girl friend. With Evelyn Ankers. ★★ (44)

November Affair-3:20 to 5:15 a.m., (2) Well-acted version of Hemingway story about a love triangle on safari: Unhappily married woman (Joan Bennett) falls for gorgeous white hunter (Gregory Peck), and her husband (Robert Preston) soon becomes an endangered species. ★★½ (47)

Friday

Last Weekend-9 to 11 a.m., (9) Grim study of alcoholism, with an Oscar-winning performance by Ray Milland as a writer who hits the skids. With Jane Wyman; directed by Billy Wilder. Through a glass darkly. ★★★★ (45)

Uncle Harry-1 to 2:30 p.m., (25) Henpecked by his two sisters, a man resorts to murder when they start interfering in his romance. Good cast—George Sanders, Geraldine Fitzgerald, Ella Raines—make it relatively interesting. ★★½ (45)

Room at the Top-1:30 to 3 p.m., (11) Forceful drama about an opportunist who'll stop at nothing to make a potioner of himself. Simone Signoret won an Oscar for her performance in this deeply moving film. With Laurence Harvey. ★★★ (59)

Rich Man, Poor Man: Book 1 [C]-3:30 to 5 p.m., (2) Conclusion. Peter Strauss, Nick Nolte, Susan Blakely and others star in the original 12-hour adaptation of Irwin Shaw's best-selling novel about the personal fortunes and misfortunes of two brothers who are pushed and pulled through life by greed and ambition. Made for TV (78)

Penic in the Year Zero-7 to 9 p.m., (2) Drama's about a man trying to survive with his family when his country is devastated by an atomic attack. Ray Milland, Frankie Avalon and Jean Hagen. ★★½ (42)

Thaddeus Rose and Eddie [C]-8 to 10 p.m., (2) Johnny Cash and Bo Hopkins star in the story of two fun-loving cowboys who find themselves in a series of funny situations when one cowboy decides to trade in the range for a citrus farm in the South. Made for TV ('78)

Dr. Scorpion [C]—8 to 10 p.m., (7) A power-mad genius threatens world peace with a scheme involving the theft of atomic missiles from the United States. Only one man stands in his way. Made for TV ('78)

Culpepper Cattle Company [C]—8 to 10 p.m., (9) One of the best Westerns of recent years, filmed in a grainy gold, as if the story were already being seen in memory, it tells the story of a young man named Ben (Gary Grimes) who leaves home on his first cattle drive with surly, arrogant trail boss Frank Culpepper (Billy "Green" Bush). With Luke Askew, Bo Hopkins. It rides the thin line between sentiment and cynicism. ★★★ ('72)

Shane [C]—10:30 p.m. to 12:50 a.m., (2) Familiar plot about a gunfighter coming to the aid of some homesteaders is filmed with such skill by director George Stevens that it ranks among the best Westerns ever made. The color photography and pictorial composition make it a joy to watch even on the small home screen. And young Brandon De Wilde's idolization of Alan Ladd in the title role is unforgettably moving. With Van Heflin, Jean Arthur, Jack Palance. ★★★★ ('53)

Breaking the Sound Barrier—10:30 p.m. to 12:20 a.m., (1) A aircraft manufacturer tries to develop a plane that can travel faster than the speed of sound. Ralph Richardson and Ann Todd. Sounds dippy, but it's pretty good. ★★★ ('52)

Marta [C]—11 p.m. to 1 a.m., (4) Story of a sister's tortured attempt to discover what happened to her twin. In the midst of her quest, she becomes suspected of murder and falls for her sister's husband, only to find out that he's insane. Stephen Boyd and Marisa Mell. Will problems never cease? No rating available ('70)

Devil and Miss Sarah [C]—11:05 to 1 a.m., (2) Satanist outlaw takes possession of the mind of the wife of his tormentor. Gene Barry and James Drury. Devilishly bad. ★ ('71)

Night of the Following Day [C]—12:30 to 2:43 a.m., (7) Marlon Brando showcase that didn't make it, about a gang of freaky kidnapers (Brando, Rita Moreno on junk, Richard Boone as a sado-masochist) who get the jitters and turn on each other when the ransom pickup goes awry. Chilling nail-biter the kids shouldn't see. ★★★★ ('69)

Fallen Idol—1:20 to 3:10 a.m., (9) Here-worshiping boy thinks his idol is guilty of murder, tries to help him but incriminates him instead. Ralph Richardson, Michele Morgan, Jack Hawkins; directed by Carol Reed; written by Graham Greene. Worthy of admiration. ★★★★ ('49)

Saturday

Double Feature Movie—8:30 to 11:15 a.m., (6), "Private Eyes." Bowery Boys try to help a feisty blond and wind up on a health farm where they uncover a fur-smuggling ring. Leo Gorcey, Huntz Hall, Joyce Holden. Weasel out. ★ ('53). "Fearless Fagan." Draftee takes his pet lion along and hides him in a forest near the Army post. Janet Leigh, Carleton Carpenter, Keenan Wynn. Kid stuff. ★★ ('52)

Meet Captain Kidd—10:30 a.m. to Noon, (2) Abbott and Costello discover they have Captain Kidd's treasure map, instead of their own letter. With Charles Laughton. No rating available ('52)

Eagle and the Hawk—Noon to 2:30 p.m., (9) Grim story of World War I air fighting. Frederic March and Cary Grant. A bit dated, but ok. ★★½ ('33)

Pride of the Bowery—Noon to 1:30 p.m., (2) The Bowery boys take over in the city Civilian Conservation Corp. Leo Gorcey and Huntz Hall. ★★ ('41)

Magic Serpent [C]—1:30 to 3 p.m., (2) "Press Release of the Week" goes to Channel 32 for this inscrutable plot description: "Ten years after the murder of his father, a young man meets a villain and challenges him to a duel." Hiroki Matsukata, Tomoko Ogawa. No rating available ('66)

Heart of the Matter—2 to 3:45 p.m., (1) Trevor Howard plays a police officer on the verge of mental collapse in this story based on Grahame Greene's novel about conflicts in the South. With Elizabeth Allen and Maria Schell. ★★½ ('54)

Captain Kidd [C]—2 to 4 p.m., (2) The notorious title pirate is finally captured through the trickery of his own men. Charles Laughton and Randolph Scott. ★★ ('45)

Abbott and Costello in the Foreign Legion—2:30 to 4 p.m., (9) The comedy duo (Bud Abbott and Lou Costello) dons Foreign Legionnaire's duds in the tepid comedy about the sand dunes of Algiers. With Patricia Medina. ★★ ('60)

Untamed Frontier [C]—3 to 4:30 p.m., (2) Homesteaders battle cattle ranchers for free government land in routine range war wrangle. Good cast—Joseph Cotten, Shelley Winters, Scott Brady—helps. ★★ ('52)
