Blithe Spirit [C]-2 to 4 p.m., ① Noel Coward's stage success about a novelist (Rex Harrison) who finds married life to his second wife (Constance Cummings) complicated by the appearance of his first wife's ghost (Kay Hammond). A most eccentric medium (Margaret Rutherford) has started all the trouble during an unfortunate seance. ★★ (45)

Here Come the Co-eds-2:30 to 4 p.m., ② Abbott and Costello arrive at an exclusive school for young gentlemen to work as caretakers. Bud Abbott and Lou Costello. ★★ (45)

Smoke Signal [C]-3 to 4:30 p.m., ③ Cavalrymen ride into a new post and find it being attacked by Indians; then the survivors escape by flatboat down the dangerous Colorado River. Dana Andrews, Piper Laurie, Rex Harrison. Some days it just doesn't pay to get out of bed. ★★½ (55)

Tortilla Flat-7 to 9 p.m., ④ Talky, but worthwhile film based on Steinbeck's story of some California idlers whose easygoing life is disrupted when one of them inherits some houses. Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr, John Garfield. ★★ (42)

Two Years Before the Mast-8 to 10 p.m., ⑥ Records the 1834 journey of the brig Pilgrim from Boston to California under Capt. Francis Thompson, who is bent on making a record voyage around the Horn. Cruel discipline, floggings, short rations and scruffy lead to mutiny and piracy. The crew finally takes the Pilgrim back to Boston in order to publish a diary revealing the inhumanities of maritime practices and fight for the rights of American seamen. Alan Ladd, Brian Donlevy, William Bendix. ★★ (46)

The Dirty Dozen [C]-10:30 p.m. to 1:30 a.m., ⑦ World War II adventure about a team of murderers, rapists and thugs trained by the U.S. Army to blow up a chateau full of German officers in occupied France, and win possible pardon. Among their ranks are John Cassavetes, Telly Savalas, Charles Bronson, Jim Brown and Clint Walker. Actually, most of the movie is amusing, well-paced and intelligent, up to the last scene, a hideous view of the German officers and their women burning to death. With Lee Marvin, Ernest Borgnine. ★★½ (67)

Comancheros [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:40 a.m., ⑧ John Wayne, Lee Marvin and Stuart Whitman seem to be having a high old time in this big-scale Western about a Texas Ranger who infiltrated a gang of outlaws supplying guns and firewater to the Comanches. The fun is contagious. ★★ (61)

A Star Is Born [C]-10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., ⑨ Sorry, Judy Garland fans. This is the original screen version, starring Janet Gaynor as the country girl trying to crash the golden gates of Hollywood. Investigation of a Citizen Above Suspicion [C]-1:30 to 4 a.m., ⑫ Smug, mentally unbalanced police chief plants evidence against himself to test his underlings, his own status, and his moral and social superiority. Florida Balkan, Gianni Santuccio. ★★½ (70)

The Chase [C]-2:30 to 5:30 a.m., ⑬ Rumor has it that producer Sam Spiegel kept interfering with director Arthur Penn, so this jumbled film is the result of unresolved points of view. Heaven knows they needed some excusal! With a fantastic cast (Marlon Brando, Jane Fonda, Robert Redford, etc.) and a screenplay credited to Lillian Hellman, it's incredible that this bloody mess of left-wing clichés about sex and sin in a small Texas town should have resulted. Send the kids out to play. ★½ (66)

ca's jungle. Robert Ryan, Rod Steiger. They should've come back. ★★ (56)

Midway [C]-8 to 10 p.m., ⑥ Part I. World War II buffs will find this an interesting account of the air-sea battle off Midway Island in the Pacific that turned the odds in favor of the United States over Japan during the war. Lemon Drop Kid [C]-10:30 to 12:20 a.m., ⑦ Sweet-sour Damon Runyon comedy stars Bob Hope as a fast-talking racketeer tout who has to come up with a bundle he owes the syndicate-unless he wants to end up taking a swim in a cement bathing suit. Roddy McDowell, Kim Hunter and Maurice Evans are among the fine actors cunningly made up as apes in this fun film that led to a whole series of "Ape" flicks. ★★ ('68)

Sergeant Rutledge [C]—7 to 9 p.m. (2) One of director John Ford's later and lesser efforts, this muddled sagebrush drama involves racism, rape, murder and courtroom dramatics. Jeffrey Hunter, Constance Towers, Woody Strode. Reduced in rank. ★★ ('60)

Midway [C]—8 to 10 p.m. (3) Part 2. World War II buffs will find this an interesting account of the air-sea battle off Midway Island in the Pacific that turned the odds in favor of the U.S. over Japan during the war. Tension—3:10 to 5:05 a.m. (2) Quiet melodrama about a man who is deserted by his wife and assumes a new identity in order to get revenge on her and her lover. Richard Basehart, Audrey Totter. Nothing to get clutched about. ★★ ('50)

Tuesday

Horizon's West—9 to 11 a.m. (1) When two brothers return to the West from the Civil War their lives take off—separately. One becomes a lawman, the other a criminal. Robert Ryan and Rock Hudson. Laid-back. ★★½ ('52) in—all in the same night. Peter Sellers, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Lionel Jeffries. A comic cinch. ★★½ ('61)

Beneath the Planet of the Apes [C]—3:30 to 5 p.m. (7) Round two of the series that started with "Planet of the Apes" in 1968, is several notches beneath the original in amusement and creativity. Kim Hunter and Maurice Evans play human leads, who are superior in every way. ★½ ('70) over the Soviet Union in May, 1960. Movie outlines Powers' capture, trial and conviction for the espionage and subsequent two years in a Siberian work camp. Made for TV (76)

History Is Made at Night—12:07 to 2:14 a.m. (7) Curious mixture of comedy and melodrama casts Charles Boyer, Jean Arthur and Leo Carrillo as a Parisian love triangle. Melange a trois. ★★½ (33)

The Oscar [C]—1:25 to 3:45 a.m. (9) Splashy soap-opera about a ruthless actor who uses everyone in his path to further his own career. Stephen Boyd and Elke Sommer. Doesn't deserve one. ★★ (66)

With Camilla Sparo. Hep aboard. ★★½ (66)

Prisoners of the Casbah [C]—3:45 to 5:25 a.m. (3) Arabian Nights tale about the "King of Thieves" and a hide 'n' seek princess who try to escape the clutches of the evil Grand Vizier. Gloria Grahame, Cesar Romero, Turhan Bey. Flee. ★½ (53)

The Texans—1 to 2:30 p.m. (4) Pretentious "Class A" Western isn't any better than budget quickies except for the stars in the cast. It's the story of Northern politicians who come to Texas after the Civil War. Joan Bennett, Randolph Scott. ★ (38)

Operation Snatch—1:30 to 3 p.m. (1) Legend has it that as long as Barbary apes stay on the Rock of Gibraltar, it will remain part of the British Empire. So during World War II, a lieutenant (who else but Terry-Thomas?) is sent to guard the simians. With George Sanders, Lionel Jeffries. Monkey business that's nothing to go ape over. ★★ (42)

Escape from the Planet of the Apes [C]—3:30 to 5 p.m. (7) Third of the simian series is an obvious reversal of the first: Cute ape couple Zira and Cornelius (Kim Hunter and Roddy McDowall), plus brilliant buddy Milt (Isi Mince), time-war their own advanced planet to Earth, 1973. Despite ponderous commentary about a man's inhumanity to man (and monkey), it manages to be decently entertaining. ★★½ (71)

The Sisters—7 to 9 p.m. (3) Film traces the marital woes of three sisters—Bette Davis, Anita Louis and Jane Bryan. Bette's got the most trouble, of course, since she's married to unreliable husband Errol Flynn. Marriage-go-round. ★★½ (38)

This Sporting Life—10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. (1) Well-acted Brando-style flick about an aggressive rugby player who'll let nothing stand in the way of his success. Richard Harris does a great job and the sporting scenes are tops. Good pastime. ★★½ (63)

Crossfire [C]—1 to 2:30 a.m. (7) Tough, adult thriller about a bigot who murders a Jew and is trapped by his own anti-Semitism. Robert Mitchum, Robert Young, Gloria Grahame, Robert Ryan. On target. ★★½ (47)

Catered Affair—2:15 to 4:05 a.m. (9) Woman, wanting to give her daughter the kind of wedding she's never had, uses her husband's life savings to do it. Bette Davis, Ernest Borgnine and Debbie Reynolds. Comes off nicely. ★★½ (56)

Thursday

Of Human Bondage—10:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. (9) A young medical student falls in love with a conniving, avaricious woman who only wants to better herself. Kim Novak, Laurence Harvey and Robert Morley. Miscast. ★★ (64)

Battle of the Sexes—1:30 to 3 p.m. (1) Slow-but-sure retainer of an old-fashioned Scottish firm contemplates murder when a female efficiency expert tries to shake up the operation. Peter Sellers, Constance Cummings, Robert Morley. Worth your time and motion. ★★½ (60)

Conquest of the Planet of the Apes [C]—3:30 to 5 p.m. (7) Fourth in the popular "Apes" series is a neat reversal of the first one. This time, the apes have been reduced to slave status and fight to gain control of the humans. Roddy McDowall, Den Murray, Ricardo Montalban. The philosophizing gets a bit windy, but it's still fun. ★★½ (72)

Destry [C]—7 to 9 p.m. (3) Loosely tied together remake of the Stewart-Dietrich piece made 15 years earlier. Audie Murphy plays the gunless sheriff and Mari Blanchard is Marlene's replacement. Plot holds some fascination, but not like the original. ★★ (55)

Our Man Flint [C]—8 to 10 p.m. (9) Gimmicky, high-style spoof of the James Bond flicks, about a super agent assigned to destroy villains who plan to take over the world with a secret weapon—the weather. With James Coburn, Lee J. Cobb and a bevy of beauties. ★★½ (66)

Dillinger [C]—10:30 p.m. to 12:15 a.m. (2) Supposed true story of the little criminal's life tells his gory tale, but gives little insight into his real character. Warren Oates, Ben Johnson and Cloris Leachman. ★★ (73)

Support Your Local Sheriff [C]—10:30 p.m. to 12:20 a.m. (9)

Modest little Western parody that looks as if it were made-for-TV, even though it wasn't. Anyway, everything about it seems at home on the tube, including James Garner, who does a kind of Maverick reprise as the charmer who outfoxes the bad guys and fames a town. Joan Hackett, Jack Elam, Walter Brennan and Harry Morgan add to the fooling. ★★ (69)

Affair with a Stranger—12:45 to 2:36 a.m. (7) OK weep about a hit playwright (are you ready for Victor Mature?) and his wife (Jean Simmons) who try to save their marriage by adopting a child. Won't dampen your hanky music. ★★ (54)

Leech Woman—12:50 to 2:25 a.m. (9) A woman married to a younger man finds a tribe in Africa who've discovered the secret of perpetual youth and begins bumping off men to get their hormones. Coleen Gray, Gran Williams and Philip Terry. That's one way to get 'em. ★½ (60)

Move Over, Darling [C]—1 to 3:10 a.m. (2) Chaos reigns when wife Doris Day, believed killed in a plane crash seven years before, returns on her husband's (James Garner) wedding day. Chaotic but cute. ★★½ (63)

Serenade Blade [C]—3:10 to 4:45 a.m. (2) Cliches abound in costume in a story about a young man in the 13th Century who seeks to avenge the murder of his father. Ricardo Montalban, Bette St. John. Dull. ★ (54)

Friday

Portrait in Black [C]—9 to 11 a.m. (3) Handsomely mounted trash from Ross Hunter about a faithless wife and doctor who hasten a tycoon's death, only to face blackmail. Main interest is in watching two lower-class actors—Lana Turner and Anthony Quinn—pussfooting through the elegant decor. Quinn, as usual, looks as if he's wearing a suit for the first time, while Lana expresses conscience pangs as if she's torn between Judy Fruit and Spearmin. With Sandra Dee, John Saxon. ★½ (60)

Blast of Noon—1 to 2:30 p.m. (4) William Holden plays a pilot torn between love of his wife and the wild blue yonder. With Anne Baxter, Sonny Tufts, William Bendix, Sterling Hayden. Off it goes. ★★ (47)

Morgan—1:30 to 3 p.m. (1) David Warner stars as Morgan, a man who refuses to recognize his divorce from his wife Leonie (Vanessa Redgrave) and camps on her doorstep determined not to be cast
