Jack Benny: "I'm writing my autobiography and I'm trying to find a title. I first thought of calling it The Valiant Years, but a fellow named Churchill beat me to that. Then I thought of Crusade in Show Business, but someone named Eisenhower used a Crusade title, so my publisher and I decided not to have a title but just a nude girl on the cover instead. We've already sold 4,000 covers."

Milton Berle: "My kid is only 16 months old but he's very rugged. When he was born and the doctor slapped him he slapped back."

Tom Poston of To Tell the Truth tells about the bloodhound who went to a psychiatrist because he thought people were following him.

Shelly Berman says he's rented a house in Beverly Glen Canyon near Hollywood: "When the wind blows from the west I can breathe the air exhaled by Bel-Air, right next door. That Bel-Air breeze makes the property I live in worth $60,000 alone.

"I have a swimming pool, too, but it isn't shaped like an amoeba. I'd be afraid to have a pool like that because it could divide into two pools overnight."

'Miss Teen-age Chicago' Vies for National Title on TV Friday

RAULENE BARBARA KEEN
'Miss Teen-age Chicago'

A WEEK of strenuous competition and judging of the nation's top teen-age girls [age 13 thru 17] culminates Friday with the selection of Miss Teen-age America in Dallas, Tex. The Miss Teen-age America pageant will be telecast nationwide by CBS [9-10 p. m., channel 2].

Among the 50 candidates from all over the United States competing for the nation-wide crown is Miss Teen-age Chicago, 17-year-old Raulene Barbara Keen.

A fourth year student at Mount Assisi academy where she maintains a "B" average, Raulene was selected as Chicago's teen queen Oct. 19 after a month-long search conducted by CHICAGO'S AMERICAN.

THE TALENTED teen won a $500 scholarship to the school of her choice and a week-long, expense-paid trip to Dallas, among other awards. She represents the Chicago area in the national finals.

Judges for the pageant include CHICAGO'S AMERICAN youth columnists Reba and Bonnie Churchill, Yankee Outfielder Mickey Mantle, and Hazel White Fitzgerald, director, American Airlines Stewardess college. Chairman of judges is Dr. Harry Ransom, chancellor, University of Texas.

Can YOU Pick 'Miss Teen-age America'?

Use the ballot below to test how close you can come to the judges' selection of the talent winner, the three finalists, and their choice for Miss Teen-age America. The selection will be based upon scholastic standing, intelligence, poise, personality, talent, general awareness, and good grooming.

Ride 'Em Wooster!

FRANK McGRATH of ABC-TV's Wagon Train [Mondays, 7:30 p. m., channel 7] has a special way of keeping fit. He rides a buffalo. And that alone could make him unique in the acting profession where many would ride nothing but a chauffeured limousine.

Actually, Frank has been riding the buffalo for rodeo and personal appearances this summer. Riding a bison is as easy for him as falling off a bucking bronco since Frank was a Hollywood stuntman before he became an actor.

That development occurred six years ago in the network debut of Wagon Train when he first portrayed the now celebrated role of Charlie Wooster, the wagonmaster's cook.

Even now Frank is often to be seen spending as much time with the Wagon Train stock as he does with other human actors.

Frank was born and raised on a ranch near Mound City, Mo., and his association with animals—and his stunting with them—is naturally a long one.

It seems Frank just can't stay off the back of an animal that can be ridden, and that includes strutting off on top of a buffalo.

Dear Answer Man

About Ben Gazzara . . .

ONE OF my favorite new shows is ABC's Arrest and Trial, and I would like to know something about Ben Gazzara who plays the police detective. I have been a Chuck Connors fan for a long-time, so I'm doubly thrilled with this new series. Also, who played Vera Miles' husband in a recent episode—Anne M., Chicago.

The 33-year-old actor first became interested in the theater at the age of 13 and steadily worked towards his goal until he achieved it in the off-Broadway production of "End As a Man," for which he garnered a brilliant set of notices. He has appeared in many plays and films since.

Gazzara is married to Actress Janice Rule, and they have two children. Howard Duff played Miss Miles' husband in the segment titled "Isn't It a Lovely View?"

I have recently seen several movies on TV starring a lovely and talented actress named Susan Peters. But I have been told that she is dead. If this is true, how did she die.—Mrs. Kathryn C., Chicago.

Miss Peters was injured in a hunting accident which left her paralyzed. This misfortune came at the peak of her film career. She made "Sign of the Ram" after this accident. She also starred in a TV serial called Miss Susan during the early fifties. She played a woman lawyer confined to a wheel chair. Miss Peters died a few years ago after a
