Now! Relieve acid attacks caused by STOMACH TENSION

Tablet discovery checks attacks in seconds...
then works like a warm glass of milk
to keep acid stomach soothed for hours

N. Y., N. Y. (Special). Medical science knows that today, millions suffer from Stomach Tension... a distress caused by today's hectic pace of living.

Stomach Tension pours water after wave of burnings and onto delicate stomach tissues. But ordinary antacids merely relieve the first wave of acid... then leave the stomach open to further attack. An antacid was needed that could give prolonged soothing relief... the same amazing relief that doctors knew a warm glass of milk gave. The answer came when physicians discovered a Glycine compound—a medication that soothed a burning acid stomach even better than a warm glass of milk. This, the most effective compound in ordinary antacids, and actually worked to soothe the stomach for hours.

If you suffer from Stomach Tension and ordinary antacids don't give the relief you want, eat Amitone. No prescription needed.

DEAR ANSWER MAN

WHEN will Mitzie Gaynor appear on TV again? She's one of the most talented and beautiful women I ever saw.—George P., Chicago.

Miss Gaynor will make one of her rare television appearances on the Ed Sullivan show Feb. 16 when the program originates from Convention Hall, Miami Beach, Fla.

Does Don Ameche have a brother in the acting profession? If so, what names does he go under? — Irene M., Gary, Ind.

The host of International Showtime has a brother, Jim Ameche, who sounds almost exactly like him. Jim is a radio disk jockey in New York City.

I recently saw the name Mark Rydell on the credits of a Ben Casey segment. Could this be the same Mark Rydell who used to play Jeff in the daytime serial, As the World Turns? — Mrs. Harriet S., Zion, Ill.

It's nice to know that someone actually reads the credits on TV shows. Yes, Mark Rydell, the director, is the same Mark Rydell who used to be the actor.

For some time I have been under the impression that Harry Von Zell died of a heart attack, but I recently saw him on a commercial. Is he still living or was this commercial made some time ago?—Robert T., Chicago.

Harry Von Zell, perhaps one of the most famous announcers radio ever produced, is still very much alive. He recently made an appearance on McHale's Navy in addition to his commercial chores.

Is it true that Shirley MacLaine and her real life brother, Actor Warren Beatty, will star in a new TV series next season? I've heard they will portray a brother and sister team of attorneys. I think it's a great idea—Evelyn K., Park Ridge, Ill.

It's true.

Was "Let's Make Love," which was on Saturday Night at the Movies recently, Marilyn Monroe's last movie before her death? She looked very beautiful in this film—Mrs. Joyce B., Chicago.

Miss Monroe made one more film, "The Misfits," after "Let's Make Love." All of her films have reached the home screens with the exceptions of "Some Like It Hot" and "The Misfits."

I am disappointed in this year's Alfred Hitchcock show. It seems to me that most of the stories are rebashed from other seasons. There hasn't been a frightening or unusual story on this series for some time. Is Hitchcock still writing and directing them or has someone else taken over? — John W., Chicago.

Alfred Hitchcock serves in an executive capacity on the TV series which uses his name and reputation. He never did write or direct the series except on a couple of rare occasions. Hitchcock confines all his directional "know-how" to films.

I recently saw a movie on TV with Lucille Ball and Henry Fonda and I thought I spotted Ozzie Nelson in a scene playing a small part. Was it really Ozzie, and what was the name of the film? — Mrs. Lois W., Cary, Ill.

You have a very keen eye for faces. "The Big Street" [1942] is one of the few films in which Ozzie appeared. Who would have thought back in 1942 that Lucy and Ozzie would become such big TV stars?

Is Hollywood and the Stars a new series or has it been on TV before? I have argued with my husband that these shows were on TV before, but he insists the series is new — Mrs. Margaret F., Chicago.

The NBC series about Hollywood, past and present, is new. David Wolper, who is executive producer of the series, produced a series of specials about Hollywood which were shown on TV last year. This may be the cause of your confusion.

Is Eerie Stanley Gardner, the creator of Perry Mason, still living?—George B., Blue Island, Ill.

Mr. Gardner is hale and hardy at the age of 74. He still keeps six secretaries busy with daily dictation of about 20,000 words.

Who is Frank Sinatra Jr.'s mother—I have been led to believe it is Ava Gardner.—Anne J., Des Plaines, Ill.

Altho Frank Sr. was married to Miss Gardner for a time, both of his children, Frank Jr. and Nancy, are from his first marriage, to Nancy.
