

Chicago's
Sunday AMERICAN

DECEMBER 23-29, 1962

A NEW VIEW OF CHICAGO AND SUBURBS

—from 20,000 feet in the air

The CHICAGORAMA map is suitable for framing in homes, schools and offices

Chicagorama is so detailed that any resident can recognize the block in which he lives. It pictures a horizon of 12,000 square miles, from Bloomington to Gary and Waukegan to Madison, Wisconsin, as seen and mapped from 20,000 feet.

Chicagorama is a breath-taking aerial view that pinpoints major buildings and institutions, as well as places of interest—streets, highways, expressways, tollroads, lakes, rivers, and boundaries of towns within the greater Chicago area.

An 8 x 14-foot Chicagorama exhibit, narrated to help the visitor see and understand all points of interest, is on display in the new lobby of Chicago's American.

Please send me.....copies of a 24x39 inch full color reproduction of CHICAGORAMA. Enclosed is my check for.....
